Two Tinsukia Women's College students selected for nat'l youth fest

CORRESPONDENT

DOOMDOOMA, Dec 25: The Women's College, Tinsukia, has reason to celebrate as two of its first-semester students – Tamanna Sharma and Aashika Das – have been selected to represent the Assam team at the National Youth Festival to be held at Bharat Mandapam.

Tamanna Sharma, a meritorious student of BBA first semester, and Aashika Das, a BA first-semester student majoring in Economics and an active NSS volunteer, have earned the prestigious opportunity through their dedication, talent, and consistent performance. Their selection to participate at a national-level platform is being seen as a significant achievement for both the students and the institution.

The college authorities said that the accomplishment reflects the students' perseverance, leadership qualities, and commitment to excellence. Representing Assam at the National Youth Festival, one of the country's most important youth-centric events, highlights their exceptional abilities and promise.

The principal, faculty members, staff, and students of the Women's College, Tinsukia have congratulated both the students and expressed confidence that they will uphold the pride of Assam and bring laurels to the college.

With this achievement, the Women's College, Tinsukia, has further strengthened its reputation as an institution committed to nurturing academic merit, cultural talent, and youth leadership.
